CITY MANAGER'S REPORT

City Manager Bryan Cobb wished everyone a happy new year.

CITY ATTORNEY'S REPORT

Assistant City Attorney David Hall wished everyone a happy new year.

COMMUNICATIONS AND REPORTS

Council Member Keith Britton

Council Member Britton wished everyone a happy new year. He stated that the Santa run was a great time, but there were a number of low hanging trees and requested either the trees be trimmed higher or Santa be pulled on a float next year. He commented that a gentleman donated Christmas stockings and he was able to deliver them to Boys Town and the ION neighborhood.

Deputy Mayor Bob Pollack

Deputy Mayor Pollack wished everyone a happy new year. He commented that the pedestrian crossing sign on Oviedo Blvd does not stop flashing and there are trees covering the pedestrian sign at the roundabout on Oviedo Blvd on the Oviedo Park side. City Manager Bryan Cobb stated that the pedestrian signs are always on because they do not have sensors.

Council Member Jeff Boddiford

Council Member Boddiford stated 15 cars were broken into in Whispering Woods and asked for something to be done to reinforce the message to lock your cars. He mentioned that Wreaths Across America on December 12th had a great ceremony and that the Boys and Girls Club is going to be a great asset for the City.

Council Member Judith Dolores Smith

Council Member Smith stated that Loves Missions collected, wrapped and distributed items to those in need in the community. She mentioned that Dr. Hortense Evans Adams, a former educator at Jackson Heights Colored School, passed away on December 13th and will be remembered as a stern but caring educator. She commented that she was part of the Hanukkah celebration held by the Chabbad Congregation. She provided an update on the press release from Stephanie Murphy's office on the Water Resources Development Act of 2020, contact information for scholarships in Modeling and Simulations, and thanked the Oviedo Police and Fire Departments for keeping the community safe during the holidays.

Mayor Megan Sladek

Mayor Sladek mentioned that the church near Round Lake Park will provide food assistance tomorrow. She requested and received an update on Friends of Oviedo. She thanked the scouts and Sarah Grace family for picking up trash. She gave kudos to the crew working on Lake Charm Dr for fixing the hole. She commented that there was enough support to place wreaths from Wreaths Across America at Boston Hill Cemetery. She advised there will not be a Martin Luther King's Day parade and that you do not have to get the COVID vaccine in the county you reside. She stated that UCF has partnered with Neoware to create an incubator lab hub.
